++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wet overnight with sharp showers and sunny spells on Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloud will thicken this evening before rain becomes widespread across Wales overnight. This will have largely cleared by morning, leaving a few patches of light rain and drizzle. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Friday:
It will be a day of sunshine and showers for northern and central parts, with showers potentially turning heavy and thundery. Staying largely clear and dry along the south coast. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudy with showers on Saturday. Risk of further rain at times on Sunday and Monday, especially in the south. Best of the dry and brighter weather in the north.
